Postlude

"And pray for one another." James 5:16 Throughout the Season of Lent, there is a Loaves and Fish plate on the Communion table, with Prayer Request forms. If you have a Prayer Request, please fill out a form and leave it on the plate, or hand it to the minister before the service.

Our prayers and sympathies to Isabel, David & Jaycee Sabapathy on the death of their husband and father, George, a memorial service will be held at a later date.

Zion's Tuesday evening video series presents a short survey of the New Testament Book of Hebrews. Why is Hebrews so important to us today? Our video host, respected New Testament scholar Karen Jobes, says the message is timeless. Hebrews presents who Jesus is and how he is the fulfilment of what God began to do through the nation of ancient Israel. It explains why Jesus remains forever at the centre of God's relationship to humankind. Please join us: 7:30 PM, Zion parlor. For more on the series: <http://www.zondervan.com/letters-to-the-church>.

World Day of Prayer Service will be held on Friday, March 2 at 3:30 at St. Dunstan's Basilica.

We would ask that you respect Zion as a scent free Environment. To help make our church welcoming for everyone including those with sensitivities to scents and perfumes.
