Today is World Communion Sunday.

All those who follow Jesus as Saviour and Lord are invited to share Communion with us.

Prayer after Communion:

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. May we go from this place united by your grace to give ourselves for others in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Next Sunday is the PEI Marathon. Be sure to allow yourself a bit of extra time - an extra 15 minutes or so - to arrive at church. Marathon workers have been posted at the main intersections around the Prince Street churches - simply tell the workers that you are attending Zion church, and they will let you through. Gathering for worship will be worth the very minor extra effort!

Best wishes to Florence Glynn who is celebrating her 94th Birthday on Monday.

LEADING WITH CARE—The Presbytery of PEI will be hosting a 'Leading With Care' workshop on Saturday, November 3, 2018 from 10 a.m. - noon here at Zion. This is a great opportunity for our Zion family to strengthen our Leading with Care knowledge and implementation.

If you volunteer with Sunday School, youth or seniors, or if you would like more knowledge of our Leading with Care procedures, please consider attending this event. If you plan to attend please confirm with Dianne or Glynis.

"Fill the Loft" Have you ever wanted to see just what it is like to sing in the choir? What is it like to be surrounded by people who love to sing?

You have an opportunity to sing with the choirs for one Sunday, October 28! You would only need to go to one rehearsal, Wednesday (October 28) evening from 6:45-7:45 and then meet in Coles Hall on Sunday morning at 9:45. A Thanksgiving Blessing from the Bible (Philippians 4:6-7):

Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. God's peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.

Prayers for Thanksgiving Day

Many people recognise that Thanksgiving Day is an important time to give thanks to God for all the blessings of our lives. Here are some ideas to help your family in their prayers together:

- Give everyone an opportunity to express their thanks. Go around the table and ask each person to think of something from the past year for which they are particularly thankful.
- You can go around the table three times: once, asking for events for which people are thankful; once, for things received or enjoyed; and once more, asking for each one to express thanks for a particular quality in each member of the family (for example: "I'm thankful for my sister playing with me, for Mom taking good care of me, for Dad taking me camping.") Again, these can all be summed up in a prayer after all have shared their thoughts.
- It can be helpful, when gathering for a Thanksgiving meal, to think about who worked hard for all the elements of the meal to come together: the farmer who planted and harvested the corn, the truck drivers who delivered the potatoes, the people who packed the turkeys, the municipal workers who provided water and electricity - the list goes on.
- Go around the table asking for ideas about how each person can express thanks by doing something for another, and giving them cause to be thankful. "Dear God, thank you for this great food. I will show my thanks by volunteering to help collect food for the hungry." Or, "Dear God, thanks for this stuffing. I will be thankful by helping every day this week in cleaning up after supper."
- Prayers of thanks work after a meal, too - and there is less pressure to get them done quickly! Consider a traditional "grace" before the meal, and some of the ideas above for after - or even as conversation throughout the meal!
