

“Let the Peace of Christ Rule in Your Hearts”

The Prince Street Churches and St. Dunstan's invite everyone to our Noontime Lenten Services and Luncheons
Wednesdays, 12:10-12:50, Feb 26-April 1
And a special Holy Week evening service:
April 8, 7 pm at St. Dunstan's

All are welcome to these brief services of worship, followed by a hearty lunch, all on the theme of Colossians 3:12-15:

*“As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience.
Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.*

Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful.”

The Fear of Nicodemus

He came to Him by nightfall, his soul felt sick and blind,
He had to hear the answers to the questions on his mind.

He had to come in secret, from the Pharisees to hide,
For should they know his thinking, he'd be shamed and pushed aside.

They didn't understand it and they wouldn't dare believe,
That He was the Messiah, the one who came to save.

His heart was touched by Jesus, though he couldn't comprehend,
What was meant when he heard “born again”,

When spoken by this man.

Then Jesus gently told him of his Father's gracious love,

The way he could be born again,

Was simply from above.

You see God loved the world so much,

He sent His only Son,

That everyone who trusts in Him,

Is truly born again.

And now they have eternal life,

Their sins are washed away,

And they have passed from death to life,

Effective on that day!

Now should it be that one would bear the Nicodemus fear,

Or laden down with heavy load, the road to walk not clear,

The questions and the doubts seem to circle round and round,

Step out and speak to Jesus, for a new life to be found.
