Sunday School

For Easter Sunday, April 5th there will be no structured Children's Programming upstairs this week to allow the Children's Programming volunteers to enjoy the Easter Sunday Worship Service in the Sanctuary. On this Family Sunday the children can stay with their parents, grandparents, and/or caregivers throughout the worship service.

The children's space with activity items available will be set-up at the front of the sanctuary and the quiet spaces will be available upstairs if a parent, grandparent, or caregiver chooses to utilize those areas.

We appreciate the support we have received throughout the year by having your children/grandchildren join our Sunday Morning Children's Programming and we look forward to returning to the Believe series on Sunday, April 12th with structured programming upstairs.
